

*Here is
what some
of our residents
have to say:*

*“This is retirement living
as it should be. I don’t know why I
didn’t think of
this sooner!”*

*“I love my new home. Everyone
is so friendly
here. It’s such a blessing not to
have the hassles
of home
ownership.”*

*“I only wish
I had moved in
sooner.
It’s like
I never left
home!”*

We offer Independent and Assisted living in the wonderful rural community of Curtis, Nebraska located in southwestern portion of the state. Our senior services are affordable and best of all reflect the quality of life for retirement and senior living services that can be found in rural communities across the United States.

Independent Living

We have beautiful one and two bedroom cottages with garages and patios designed for active Independent Living. These charming cottages offer the convenience and services of being associated with a senior community but the independence to come and go as you please. All of our cottages are designed with easy-access ground level access and have weekly housekeeping services, maintenance-free lawn care, snow removal, free cable and Internet and even access to gardening space.

You can cook in your own kitchen and entertain in your cottage and also have access to a meal plan to fit your lifestyle. The Cottages are also wheelchair and walker friendly and small pets are welcome. Our approach is to offer you all the services you want and need so you can have hassle-free retirement living in Curtis, Nebraska.

Assisted Living

For seniors needing assistance with activities of daily living, we offer studio and one bedroom residential Assisted Living Suites. Our specially designed location offers a thoughtful architectural layout specially planned to promote a unique home-like environment for assisted living. These apartments can be furnished with your own special furnishings or we also offer furnished units. All assisted living apartments come with free cable and Internet, all utilities except telephone service, intercom call assistance, unique waist level gardens, wheel chair and walker friendly. You won't see a long hallway in sight or anything that hints at an institutional atmosphere at Senior Living Choices at Curtis.

Senior Living Choices at Curtis takes pride in offering high quality senior services to all residents. From our award winning home cooked meals with fresh baked pies in our inviting dining room to our professional trained senior staff our goal is to provide quality services to all our residents so they can have a stress-free assisted living lifestyle.
